

Janis Cookson received a Bachelor of Science, Public Recreation Administration from the University of Arizona, and is currently Manager, Sport Development/Pan Am Centre for the City of Markham. Janis has worked within the Canadian sport system for over 30 years at a Provincial Government level as an Organization Development Consultant and at the National and Provincial Sport Organization levels.

Janis was previously the Director, Sport Tourism, 2010 LegaciesNow, and was Manager, Logistics for the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver. Additionally, Janis has extensive sports event experience having managed several other Provincial and International multi-sport and single Sport Events. Janis was a lead volunteer Chair of the venue management committee for the Invictus Games Toronto 2017.

Janis was also a high performance athlete and was a member of the 1983 Canadian Women's Gold Medal Softball Team at the Pan Am Games, Caracas, Venezuela. Janis was inducted into the Canadian Softball Hall of Fame in 1997.