

As Manager of Tourism (acting) for The Regional Municipality of Durham, Kristyn has more than 10 years of experience in community events, marketing and promotion, and business relations. As a long-time resident of Durham Region, Kristyn is proud to promote the area to residents and visitors and assist business owners and organizations in achieving their business goals.