

Rob Kadlovski is the visionary founder and President/CEO of Nicholby's®, who opened his first location in 1980 at the Holiday Inn, Oshawa, Ontario. Rob has evolved his vision over nearly 4 decades, to build the Nicholby's brand and make it a household name through a franchise model. Today, Nicholby's operates both corporate and franchise locations nationally.

Rob, through his corporate holdings has created employment in many communities, by engaging in internship programs, and raising funds for youth programs. He has been involved with Central Counties Tourism since its inception, working to foster economic development opportunities. Some examples of his past and present York Region community engagements, include: Central Counties Tourism (RT06) Board Member and former Chair, currently Vice Chair – Ontario Government Board; Unionville BIA Board Member and former Chair; Active in Community Groups and City Committees; Toronto PANAM 2015 – Co-Chair of Marketing Committee; Mentoring Seneca College Students on Tourism; Markham Stouffville Hospital Fund; Hockey Helps the Homeless; Unionville Retirement Community; and, Run for Cancer supporter.