

Angela Poletto is the Manager of Sales at the McMichael Canadian Art Collection. She is an experienced Manager with a demonstrated history of working in the hospitality, museum and environmental services industry; skilled in Non-profit Organizations, Negotiation, Budgeting, Sales, Corporate Social Responsibility, Tourism and Business Planning and has been a Board Member of Central Counties Tourism, representing York Region since 2017 and is the Chair of the Tourism Sustainability Committee.

As a graduate of the Humber College, Hospitality Management program, she has always had a passion for tourism and customer service. Her career started at the Four Seasons, Yorkville with the sales department, where she worked with the Film, Group and Corporate market. When the opportunity rose to be part of the opening team of the Windsor Arms Hotel, she did not hesitate to take on this new challenge. Angela was the Guest Services Manager and was overseer of all reservations, customer service, film bookings and VIP guest affairs. After taking several years off to raise her two children, she joined Black Creek Pioneer Village, a division of TRCA, to oversee the Corporate and Group Tours market. At the McMichael, Angela is responsible for all sales revenue, pertaining to weddings, corporate and group travel.

Additional boards and committees that Angela is a part of are the York Region Arts Council Board, Kleinburg BIA Board, and OMCA Supplier Chain Committee to name a few.

A busy mother of two teenaged boys, she enjoys exploring York, Durham and Headwaters Regions with her family, whether it be hiking or enjoying all the arts and culture these regions have to offer.
